Welcome to our Worship

*'Do not be afraid;
from now on it is men you will catch'.*

NOTICES

Please join us in the Hall after the service this morning, to celebrate St Wilfrid. Everyone welcome.

The next Bible Study group will be held at Catherine Warner's house on Thursday 16th October from 7.30-9pm. All welcome.

Share and Care - the next event will be held on Tuesday 21st October, 1pm in the hall. We will be having Fish and Chips. Offers of any cold desert would be very welcome. The cost of the meal will be £5, being subsidised this month with the help of John and Anne's raffle! Please let Carolyn or Jeannette know as soon as possible if you would like to come.

Decluttering/Housework. We have received a Promise of a session of Decluttering or Housework from Dawn Warrington. If anyone is interested in this, offers to Karen please.

Christmas Dinner. We are really pleased to be able to offer Christmas Dinner at St Wilfrids again this year. This is primarily aimed at single people or couples who would be on their own and would like some company. If you would like to come or if you know somebody who would like to join us, please let Karen know ASAP. Numbers are limited to 40, so book early!

Parish Magazine - if anyone has an article they would like to be included in the next magazine edition please send to Jeannette at jandjknott@yahoo.co.uk or by hand, by the end of October please.

Toilet/Kitchen Roll Tubes. We are collecting empty toilet/kitchen roll tubes for a craft item for the Christmas Fair and would welcome any donations please.

CBS Festival at Christ Church, St Leonard's on Sea on Saturday 1st November, with Bishop Nicholas Reade. If anyone is interested in going, please speak to Pam.

Ken and Margaret would like to thank Fr Mark for allowing us to renew our vows on the occasion of our Diamond Wedding Anniversary. Also, to all our friends of St Wilfrid's Church for joining us in the Hall to celebrate after the service. We would like to thank everyone for the cards they gave to us, and many received by post.
